Superintendent's Highlights

Clark County Junior-Senior High School had the opportunity to enjoy the completion of their building project this year. The school construction project lasted over 2 years. Also, our girls' basketball team competed at the state level for the third consecutive year. In addition, we had a state champion wrestler.

Academically, all schools made adequate yearly progress. We are very proud of our teachers' hard work in reaching these goals.

Finally, the school district has been very active in The Open Book Initiative sponsored by the Albertson's Foundation. Through this grant, our teachers and administrators have had tremendous professional development opportunities.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

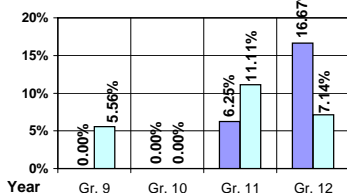

2003-04 Goals	Progress
90% of all students will be able to read at grade level by 2006.	All three schools are making adequate yearly progress. Also, all schools are receiving extensive professional development through our TOBI grant.
A new math curriculum will be adopted and implemented.	Books have been ordered and professional development will be scheduled for fall 2004.
District will ensure as accurate budgeting practices as possible.	New personnel will implement modified accrual accounting methods. New auditors have been hired to review ending balances and to conduct a thorough audit.
Security in the area of physical, grounds, and technology will be a priority.	Safety manuals are being developed and distributed to all personnel. Drills are practiced for safety of students.
